Waypoint's Methodology

The Waypoint Course™

The Waypoint Course describes the life-cycle of complex, competitive procurements from the recognition of need through its fulfillment, as well as the major phases in the process. We identify these phases as unique “waypoints” on a growth oriented business course.

Course Challenges

Revenue growth & value creation is not a linear process, but rather one of iteration and evolution where you must be responsive and flexible to the ever-changing external forces of your customers and your competition, while maintaining the proper heading to your goal.

Our Approach

Waypoint’s integrated, technology enabled solution employs our unique application of COTS software and industry best practices to facilitate content management and process execution across all pre-award business functions. Our approach provides transparency to and continuous improvement of all key performance indicators. This solution was developed for, and proven to win in, the most rigorous of competitive environments - the United States Federal and State & Local government markets.

Our Crew

With training and support from our Solution Development Center in Northern Virginia, the Waypoint crew brings in-depth experience in the Federal DoD & Civilian, State & Local government and many commercial markets. Most carry U.S. government security clearances as well as experience based knowledge of the Federal Acquisition Regulations (FAR) and Cost Accounting Standards (CAS).

Charted Revenue Growth™

The Waypoint crew brings winning past performance with such notable clients as Lockheed Martin, Raytheon, Northrop Grumman, Boeing, BAE, Accenture, Deloitte, and IBM; and on such significant business captures & proposals as:

- DLA Business Systems Modernization
- Army & Air Force Exchange System ReTEK Customization and Implementation
